Amarillo Theological Institute

We are pleased to learn of your interest in growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ through study and fellowship at the Amarillo Theological Institute. These materials will help us to get better acquainted with one another.

About ATI

ATI is an unaccredited institute. We are not a seminary, and are not seeking to take the place of formal theological training. However, we offer seminary level courses to further the education of local pastors, church leaders, and men and women from all different backgrounds in order to help Christians grow in spiritual maturity through a deeper understanding of God's Word. Our method of instruction is to utilize digitized lectures given at Westminster Theological Seminary, one of the most academically rigorous seminaries serving the church today. Students will listen to these lectures and will be given a list of assigned readings to further their understanding of the subject at hand. Pastor Andrew Moody will be available to guide discussions and to answer questions. He is a graduate of Westminster Theological Seminary, having received the Master of Divinity degree in 2005.

It is possible to take courses for credit through the WTS Dallas campus. In order to do so, you must enroll as a student of that campus, which requires a bachelor's degree, and you must pay full tuition, which is currently $370 per credit hour. You can learn more about the requirements for receiving masters level credit from WTS on their website:

<http://www.wts.edu/dallas/txprograms.html>. ATI is not formally connected to Westminster Theological Seminary in any way.

Courses will be taught from a biblically reformed world and life view that seeks to see everything through the lens of Scripture. Although our theology is in the tradition of the Protestant Reformation, we have much to offer to people of all theological traditions who are seeking a more in-depth understanding of God's Word. Please note that these are masters-level seminary courses that are academically rigorous.

Tuition

Each course at ATI costs $75 per individual and $100 per couple. Full-time students at other institutions receive a discounted tuition of $50 per individual and $75 per couple. Tuition fees go to cover material and personnel expenses and other related costs. The finances of ATI are all accounted for through Christ Covenant Presbyterian Church. The Fall 2007 semester begins on September 27.

Fall Schedule

This Fall we are offering the course Introduction to Systematic Theology by Dr. Richard B. Gaffin. Dr. Gaffin has been teaching systematic theology at Westminster since 1965, and has authored numerous scholarly books and articles. It is a two credit hour course at Westminster Theological Seminary, and can be taken for credit through WTS for $740 tuition plus applicable fees. This class will meet from 6:30 – 8:30 PM on the following Thursdays: 9/27, 10/4, 10/11, 10/18, 10/25, 11/1, 11/8, 11/15, 11/29, 12/6, 12/13, 1/3, 1/10.

Thank you for your interest in the Amarillo Theological Institute. Please contact us if you have any questions or if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Andrew Moody, ATI Director
